

Blombos Cave, South Africa . . .

Euro ~ Centric start? Maybe not!

Named for a white~flowering shrub growing above,

Human Imagination took root

In Blombos Cave, blossoming

There . . . at the Indian Ocean's edge

Linguistic Development

Cultural Development

70,000 years ago we began to draw

Cave walls our canvas

Creative necessity

An urge to share a personal world view

Fueled our passion then . . .

Has anything really changed?
